

Three ways to pay for Liberty Bonds

I. You can pay in full, by cash or check, when you subscribe

II. You can pay on the Government plan as follows:

On each $100 of Bonds—$10 when you subscribe

$20 Nov. 21, 1918, at the bank through which you subscribe

$20 Dec. 19, 1918, at the bank through which you subscribe

$20 Jan. 16, 1919, at the bank through which you subscribe

$30 Jan. 30, 1919, at the bank through which you subscribe

III. You can pay in weekly instalments on the "partial payment plan." Coupon books for $50 and $100 Bonds are issued for this purpose. You pay as follows:

With your subscription—$4 on $50 Bond—$8 on $100 Bond

Weekly for 23 weeks—$2 on $50 Bond—$4 on $100 Bond

(Weekly payments may be made at any bank in Greater New York)

You can buy Liberty Bonds to be paid for in any of the above ways, through any bank or Liberty Bond booth, through Liberty Loan Headquarters, or through any authorized Liberty Loan canvasser.

In case of necessity it is imperative to borrow freely from banks in order to buy to your limit.
